NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR IRVING WEBER AWARD

The Johnson County Historical Society is seeking nominations for the Irving Weber Award. The Irving Weber Award was established in 1992 to honor individuals or groups who have made a distinguished contribution to the research, writing, interpretation or preservation of Johnson County history. Possible contributions include but are not limited to: the saving of a building or historic site, installation of a sign or marker, restoration of a building or site, production of a film, video, audio tape, slide show, book, booklet, article, map, exhibit, display, teaching unit, or research paper; or the provision of financial support for any of the above listed activities. The award was named in honor of the late Irving Weber, Iowa City's official historian and a long time contributor to local history through his books and newspaper articles.

The Irving Weber Award will be presented at the Johnson County Historical Society's annual meeting and dinner in October. To suggest an individual or group for the award, send a letter of nomination to:

Irving Weber Award Committee
J.C.H.S.
P.O. Box 5081
Coralville, IA 52241

The letter of nomination should include the name and address of the nominee(s); a description of the nominated activity or activities; a visual representation of the nominated activity; and two letters of support from individuals not directly involved the nominated project. Nominations must be received at the address above by Friday, September 17, 2010. To receive by mail a complete description of the award categories and nomination procedures, call 351-5738. Questions about the award and the nomination process should be addressed to the Johnson County Historical Society at 351-5738 or email questions@johnsoncountyhistory.org.
